

JURY FEE 'HOLDOUT' BY COURT CLERKS A SERIOUS PROBLEM

One Clerk, Under a $5,000
Bond, Now Has $400,000
In His Custody.

David Hirschfeld, Commissioner of Accounts, today commended the Evening World in exposing the laxity of methods, if not worse, of the clerks of the Municipal Courts in returning money representing jury fees for the trial of rent actions settled or discontinued before trial. Many instances are on record of clerks holding jury fees for three months and making no effort to return them. One clerk, it has been discovered, had $400,000 in his custody. He was only under the usual $5,000 bond.

The Municipal Court Code rules that all moneys, representing jury fees, paid by any party as provided in the act, shall be returned forthwith to each party by the clerk of the court to whom such jury fee was paid. One clerk, it was found, had hired the services of an expert accountant and paid him out of the accrued interest of jury fees. Lawyers retained in rent actions have written many times without getting results. Personal visits are successful only when the clerk is not "busy" or is in a compliant mood.

Commissioner Hirschfeld today recommended that all delay could be avoided if the court clerks could be made to return jury fees within thirty days after the action had been settled. If, at the expiration of thirty days, he has not been able to reach the proper parties, the fees should then be transferred to the Controller's office, subject to payment upon application by the proper parties.

CASH IS NEEDED TO JOIN JOBS AND MEN

Arthur Williams, former Federal Food Administrator, who is Chairman of the Board of American Land Service, No. 480 Lexington Avenue, yesterday issued the following appeal to the public:

"Last week American Land Service placed 748 ex-service men in jobs. We can place 1,500 men during the next three weeks if we can get immediate financial aid. The unemployment situation is growing more serious.

ous. The suffering of unemployed ex-service men is incredible. "We are getting in our office daily hundreds of these men who are sleeping on park benches and suffering from lack of sufficient food. They do not want charity. They want work. There are practically no industrial jobs. There are thousands of farm jobs. We need your financial help to get the men and these jobs together. "The money is needed for fares to get the men to their jobs and for the expense of field secretaries who distribute the labor to the farmers. Every day that we can save at this time means jobs to hundreds. "Will you make one more sacrifice and send us a check?"

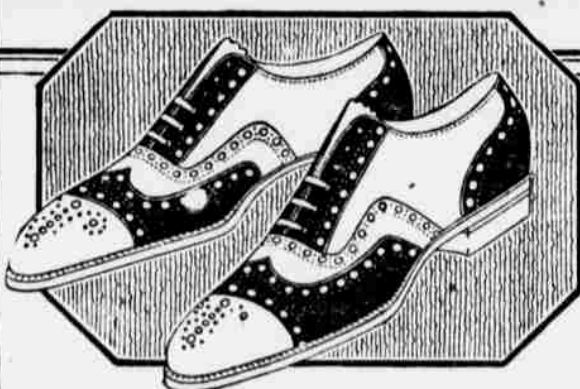

"ARTHUR WILLIAMS, "Chairman of the Board of Directors, "Checks to John Whalen, Treasurer, No. 480 Lexington Avenue. "Yesterday seven boys 'hooked' their suitcases to get part of their fares to work. THEY WANT JOBS."

French and Domestic Blouses at Less than Cost

100—originally $3.95 to $7.50—Friday $2.35
100—originally $14.50 to $32.50—Friday $4.85
100—originally $12.75 to $35—Friday $9.75

At $2.35

Blouses in batiste, dimity and voile. Some models are entirely hand-made, ornamented with hand-drawn work and embroidery. Others are pique trimmed. Excellent sweater collars, in V and round necks.

At $4.85

Models in Georgette crepe, satin and crepe de chine and sports wool jersey. The group includes many suit and "costume" blouses, in both the smart overblouse and the regulation models in all suit shades. Many of these are exquisitely embroidered by hand in colored silk, beads and metal thread. Some in gay colors.

Satin models embroidered in self color and beads are the nucleus for a whole costume for afternoon wear.

Some sports models are suitable for mountains and beach wear, trimmed with brushed wool collars.

At $9.75

FRENCH blouses, exquisite, hand-made, in batiste, voile, handkerchief linen. The typical French lingerie blouses that one buys in Paris. Trimmed with Valenciennes lace, fine tucks, embroidery, filet and Irish lace—all real, of course.

Frisled models, models with long roll-back collars, and charming tie-around models. In white, blue, mauve, flesh color and maize.

At $12.75

86 blouses, French hand-made, handkerchief linen, crepe de chine, voile, batiste and net, trimmed with hand embroidery, drawn work and real lace. Originally $32.50 to $65.

DOWN-STAIRS STORE

Men's Blue Coats

at about one-fourth the cost of the material alone. $1.45

Made for the U. S. Government of fine, heavy navy blue unfinished worsted—the cloth in each coat is worth about $5. Most of them are lined with fine Venetian—a lining that withstands the hardest kind of wear. Sleeves are lined with sturdy drill. Buttonholes are hand-made—with silk. And the coats are tailored for SERVICE. There are no buttons—you can put on the kind of buttons you prefer.

Good coats for——working in the garden—to put on when fixing up your car—to wear after strenuous exercise—tennis and such—to wear after a swim—to wear when working around the house—for men who are employed in hotels, institutions, and who drive.

210 that were $55 }

First break, Friday morning, in the price of our 1921 suits—a drop of $12 to $17 a suit—not warranted by conditions—because today's cost of making suits as good as these wouldn't permit any one to sell them for as little as $38.

But we do it every year

The sale—we mean. And, because men expect it of us, we are going to keep it up. No going outside, either. Every one of the 500 suits in this sale is from REGULAR STOCK.

Yesterday their prices were $50 and $55.

A year ago such suits were $75 to $85.

Friday, take your pick at $38.

Our Main Store Suits

They are all suits of the higher grade—worsteds, unfinished worsteds, cassimere, chevrons, flannels—herring-bones, hair lines, fancy mixtures, black and white and tan and white club checks, and plain blues and oxford in unfinished worsted or flannel.

Ten good models

Two 2-button models, six 3-button models; 2-button double-breasted and 3-button double-breasted models; patch pockets and flap-covered pockets.

Suits for ALL sizes

Player-pianos for summer homes—save money

Had you thought of music for the summer home? The young people will want it to dance to. The older ones will want it to listen to.

Here is your opportunity to put into that home a first-rate player-piano at such saving in price that it would be a pity not to take advantage of it.

Fine, new Player-pianos at $525

A saving of just $125 on this special make. Entirely new. In mahogany and oak cases. Equipped with latest improved player-action, including transposing device. A limited quantity only.

26 Player-pianos, $545 and $585

These are well-known instruments that have been used here only for demonstration, and are to be moved to make room for new pianos. Savings on these are $105 and $160. They are in perfect order and cased in mahogany.

Used Player-pianos from $395 up

Instruments taken in exchange, thoroughly rebuilt and renewed in our own piano factory. All fully guaranteed, and in excellent condition. Fine for summer camp and bungalow. The makes are various and the prices far below their original figures.

New Grands and Uprights, too

A few $900 Grand pianos for $695
A few $450 Upright pianos for $345
A few $395 Upright pianos for $295
We will sell these instruments on convenient terms.
